

Holiday Lighting Ceremony November 22, 2017 5:00 p.m.

The Platte City Area Chamber of Commerce and Platte City Parks and Recreation invite you to the annual holiday lighting ceremony in downtown Platte City.

This free, family friendly event has activities for all ages including Santa's reindeer, horse drawn carriage rides, face painting, balloon artist, holiday make it– take it, children's Main Street "sticker stop" game, the Snow Princess, refreshments and a visit with Santa and Mrs. Claus.

The Platte City Police Department and Central Platte Fire District will be serving free chili, hotdogs, chips, water and cookies in the Central Platte Fire District Building at Third and Main Street. Food trucks will join the event this year and offer a variety of items for purchase.

A free Trolley Shuttle Service will run from the Platte County High School parking lot to Main Street in downtown Platte City beginning at 4:45 p.m. The Trolley will run every 15-20 minutes until the final downtown pick up at 9:00 p.m. Downtown drop off and pick up will be at the intersections of Fourth and Main Street and Third and Main Street.
